Cortado Workplace now available on BlackBerry App World

Free cloud computing solution is Cortado's seventh app for the BlackBerry platform

(Berlin, April 2010) The free Cortado Workplace application that allows users to remotely store and access documents via their PC, Mac or BlackBerry® smartphone is now available on BlackBerry App World™. Cortado Workplace offers 1GB of online storage for free and also enables users to print documents from the cloud using their BlackBerry smartphone. Cortado Workplace is now the seventh Cortado App available on BlackBerry App World.

By simply using their BlackBerry smartphone, users can easily log-in and access documents in their online storage facility. If a user needs to print his documents, he can use any printer that is available in the WIFI network.

More than 6000 printer drivers are set up on the Cortado Hosting Center server to ensure correct print formatting. Cortado Workplace is available for all BlackBerry smartphones running OS v4.2.1. and higher. Further information can be found at www.cortado.com/wp-blackberry

Additional Cortado solutions available on BlackBerry App World include 'Save the Weekend', an app which allows you to set sending times for individual emails in advance, while the 'SMS2Desk' app converts text messages into emails. Another app is 'Cortado Flight Mode', which sets BlackBerry smartphones to flight mode and fully downloads emails before the wireless service is turned off.

BlackBerry App World is available at: www.blackberry.com/appworld.
